Jesus is revealing a baptismal-like paradox to His disciples. Only Jesus' death brings resurrection life. Only by losing our life will it be saved. We get to participate in this gracious exchange program. Not just for eternity, but in our daily lives. We get to chose from moment to moment to either hold on to our stuff or give it to the only One who can redeem. The more we lay our lives down (our wills, emotions, hopes, and aspirations) to our loving God and Father, the more He redeems. Our junk for His treasures; packed to overflowing in earthen vessels. What an exchange!! I want to cash in as much of my life as possible before I go into eternity.

Lord, Let Your Kingdom come and Your will be done in our lives, from moment to moment. Help us to submit our wills and be found more and more in You Jesus, amen.
